The ICAMC is a private international organization launched in 2010 by Prof. Robert Kasprzyk. The ICAMC's bodies are the following ones:

- The President / Chief Justice, who decides about the policy and the strategy of ICAMC's activities;
- a Secretariat headed by the Secretary General, in charge of the implementation of the activities;
- an Advisory Board appointed by the President / Chief Justice, giving advice and recommendations.

OBJECTIVES

The ICAMC is an organization dedicated:

- a) to host arbitration and mediation proceedings as per the Rules hereunder described;
- b) to act as legal advisor in important cases, at the request of clients;
- c) to initiate international actions on behalf of, or in the interest of numerous claimants/victims in order to stop prejudice and/ or get compensation due to illicit practice and facts affecting natural, social, economic, political or health environment of people.

ARBITRATION AND MEDIATION

The ICAMC intends to provide speedy, fair, just, independent, neutral and focused services in the following areas:

Arbitration

Mediation

The arbitrators of this Court will be distinguished international experts from different disciplines, with a free and total independent spirit, representing every continent in the world.

LEGAL ADVISOR

The ICAMC will also act as Advisor for a party in arbitral, as well as non-arbitral litigation and cases. The ICAMC will maintain a team of international advisors and lawyers, not only specialized in arbitration.

Lastly, the ICAMC intends to create a Forum of local and national arbitration centers or tribunals or law firms, with which the ICAMC can cooperate.
